Satisfied on This Point, but Admits That He Is Powerless to Stop Betting.

SMITH IS NOT HIS AGENT | Bight

Norfolk Grand Jury Is Expected to Deal With Jamestown Racing Situation To-Day.

matter which will have

The attention of Governor Mann was called to the special dispatch from in The Times-Dispatch, stating that J. forbidden admittance to the track herepresentative of the Governor and before the grand jury.

"If Mr. Smith was securing evidence he was doing it upon his own accord. know nothing of the matter," the of Norfolk county, to name a magisses which may be brought against laws or for retrial should the grand ent evidence to warrant this course cided in favor of the defendants, the magistrate holding that the wagers which had been placed on the horses at Jamestown were not in violation of

AN UNDRESSED DRUNK

After be had tossed down the last zhball. John Jones walked out into a street at 3 o'clock Saturday morning as he had come into the world—the one exception. He had on a there style, which had a small portion his upper anatomy from suspicious ew. For a short space his trousers angled along, attached to one foot, hen they were lost, and, like a see, hen they were lost, and, like a see, and Adam in a new suit of cypress imagine you got that habit for the said and the said. The said is a serior of the said is a said in the said in the said. The said is a serior of the said is a said in the said is a said in the sai Jones "Thish 'nunf for yoursh truly."
Smithers rapped on the pavement.
Forthwith around the corner appeared three sturdy officers. Sergeant Brown by the Lod.

in the lead

"Look a-here" said Smithers "at what I've got. Can't do nothing with lim. Thinks he is dressed up for the evenin."

Jones leaned languidly against a lamp post and surveyed the others with a acid stare. The wind played about his lone garment. They got around him fearing that some modest the strange sights Watchman Smithers—a man of generous impulse—offered his overcoat to clothe the bent-in limbs and the sunken clest. And so they took John Jones to the First Station, where it was writ down against lim that he was drunk. He lifted his cyes and wept copicusty. He swore that he was never more soher. But they mut him on an iron cot, and the next morning his friends came.

googoo eye. I took her mitt. These are all right ingers in a beauty show. I says, 'but I don't want my drinks' in the clock ticked.

From Hoop to Harem.

She told me she worked in a perfume factory—in the bottling branch. I hope I may never taste liquor again if she didn't smille with favor on my suit; we were engaged at boswell. In those days she were hoopskirts, and to jump from hoop to harem in twenty took John Jones to the First Station, where it was writ down against lim that he was drunk. He lifted his cyes and wept copicusty. He swore that he was never more soher. But they put him on an iron cot, and the next morning his friends came.

Short Addresses, To-Day, Carrying out the plan approved by the Federation of Men's Bible Classes of Richmond, the Inter-Brotherhood Week of Prayer will be observed by men of all denominations in this city.
P. H. Mayo has kindly consented tha his store, 715 East Main Street, may used for this purpose. Short hall hou services will be held there every dathis week, beginning to-day. Thes services are especially designed for business men, and will be conducted by laymen of different churches in hy faymen of different churches in Richmond. The midday service will begin promptly at 12:30 F. M. and close precisely at 1 F. M. The evening service will begin at 6:30 and close at 7 of a tonisville and Nas of a tonisville and Nas out at all the men's hible classes yes-terday morning and were also an-nounced from the pulpits of all the churches at the morning and evening 6,000 members of the federation, it is expected that these meetings will be crowded with carnest men

FOR NORTHERN NECK

Another Vecting in Interest of Road to Be Heid To-Night.

Citizens of Richmond who came here thicknown of Richmond who came here Richmond-Northern Neck Railroad will meet to-night at $250 in Richmond will meet to-night at $250 in Richmond Railroad will make to-night at $250 in Richmond Railroad will meet to-night at $250 in Richmond Railroad will make to-night at $250 in Richmond Railroad will make to-night at $250 in Richmond Railroad R rington and Business Manager W. T. Dabney, of the Chamber of Commerce. The committee consists of James F. Ryland, chairman; Judge John G. Dew.

Are You Going to Europe This Summer? Call on the Richmond Transfer Company for rates and sailings. 809 E. Main Street. Phone Monroe 767.

of the Northern Neck or not are invited, whether natives

GOVERNOR KNOWS WILLIAM RANDOLPH SKILLIT COMES STRONG ON ROMANCE FATAL PLUNGE BY FARMER

LAW IS VIOLATED Tells How He Married Nish 25 Years Ago on Cupid Special Without Even Knowing Her Name-Gives Her One Kiss a Year.

Colonel and Mrs. William Randolph Skillit celebrated their twenty-fifth Came known that I had copped the Albemarle Nish—a pippin in those days, to be sure. I told the passengers I

You ought to have been here, Bud," said the Colonel to a reporter yesterday, "for we had the smart set with bells on, lined up against the bar like depositors in front of a busted bank. We decorated the house, the color share being red that being the color that question myself. Then he wanted that question myself. Then he wanted that question myself. Then he wanted scheme being red, that being the color of my hunting pants."

"Your hunting trousers, you mean. Ranny," said Nish, "Didn't I tell you never to call me Ranny?" screamed Bill. "Bill is quite good enough for me. I don't go around with my family tree tattooed on my chest. Besides, where I came pedigree counts only in dogs Put some more of that ice on my head,

Around the place there were many thing. It is a matter which will have empty beer kegs, empty bottles and a

Regards to K. Q. Backus "We had intended going to the James-town races to celebrate there," said the Colonel, "but we heard that Governor Mann was going to put the kibosh to the bookmakers,, and Nish said she wouldn't go if the bets were off. Then we found a justice of the peace—
You know she got that habit from her how I wish I could remember that English ancestors, having ridden to hounds at all the swell bunt clubs. But dollars, he said, when he had marked the swell bunt clubs. But dollars, he said, when he had marked the swell bunt clubs. we will go yet if my old friend, Judge K. Q. Backus, stands firm like the thoroughbred that he is and still cries. I make it four or nothing, I says, and the was game, but honest I had to toss 'On with the bets,' But the anniver- up a dime.

some regularity, I might say that I have received many letters from strangers who want a copy of our genealogy. The other day I got a letter from a man offering me $25 if go back to the perfume factory, so we have the strangers who want a copy of our letter from a man offering me $25 if go back to the perfume factory, so we have the strangers of mine who would mention his goods in an in- visited those relatives of mine who terview. Therein, you see how society had not then heard of my financial is being degraded by the vulgar tradesman. It is shocking to our finquests I might as well tell you that before I lost my fortune I was one of the leaders of fashion in Richmond. No function was complete without me-Willie boys copied my clothes, and really, Bud, now really, the hardest race I ever had to run was from poor but aristocratic mothers, with marriageable gals. But then when I failed, they cut me dead. Don't you think I have a right to be an anarchist?

Quick Lunch Courting. "It was right after my financial trouble that I decided to go away twenty-five years ago, and in looking for a cheap ticket. I first heard that Mrs. Gill's matrimonial special was to sail for Washington. I got a ticket. In those days it took much time to In walked Nish, at Dumbarton, a real school with enough degrees to start sown from Fifth and Main Streets to Ninth. There he met the horrified Night Watchman Smithers. Watchman Smithers isn't used to such goins on, and he remonstrated with Mr. Jones. "Aw go on, and get the rest of 'em," "Get nothing—hie—" replied John ones. "Thish 'nuff for yoursh truly" smithers rapped."

Smithers rapped. "So got that habit from a due last night, but to me it's like going to the dentist—I love to delay it. But you've been a pretty good old steady with candy. Take this, kiddo, I said. 'and see if you can shoot me through the heart with a chocolate drop.' She smiled. 'If this whole world was a beach,' I says to her, 'there wouldn't be no pebbles on it has beach,' I says to her, 'there wouldn't be no pebbles on it has beach,' I might as well reward you now so that habit from a due last night, but to me it's like going to the dentist—I love to delay it. But 'to the dentist—I love to delay it. But 's aid, 'and see if you can shoot me through the heart with a chocolate drop.' She beach,' I says to her, 'there wouldn't be no pebbles on it has 'to the dentist—I love to delay it. But 'to the dentist—I lov Then I reached over and played hands, same time giving her a gentle googoo eye. I took her mitt. These wedding anniversary with some high could die for her if I didn't have to old times in Hennerraeker Saturday night. footed it for a marriage license. J look like a manufacture of low grade pants?' I said. 'Listen to me,' I added: 'I didn't come here to be jollled.

Class to Her Ancestry. sign the book: I didn't have no gloves and me-who she was: that she was walked out Nish, who has since been

Why she would have worn a bathing suit all winter to keep down dress making bills so she could send mone to the starving Chinese. mony is all right-in its place-though I can well understand that the W. C T. U. is opposed to Mormonism becaus it knows that more than one wife will drive a man to drink."

The Dumbarton widow, who had come in meanwhile, was still skeptical and frisky "Now don't tell me how sad you have been since your five years of widowhood," said Bill, "Your husband was burned to death in a barroom fire the night my little Larkin was born and Larkin was twenty-four last

"Rann-1 mean Bill-you ought not to be so cruel," said Nish, "Remember how happy we have been; give the lady a chance.

colonel replied, "by fetching up some beer we didn't let 'em they'd stick a pin in your wrist the blood would trickle out so blue that t would make the blue sky of Italy look like the dead leaves around Dumsociation with the aristocracy of Virand when I'm dizzy I must have

"Your health, Nish; may your eyes still be bright; may the bloom of the peach ever linger on those soft checks; may the red of the cherry always hover about your lips. Your health, I say, old girl, and may this home of mine ever find you here-your shape "But she first made me promise not to drink any more—and I haven't taken a drink of water since, honest, pal not a drop. There was much expour king. Drink hearty, all; drink

itement on the special when it be-I hearty to-day, Midday and Evening Meetings, With RIGHMOND WAN LEADING KILED BY TRAIN

Cary Barraud Crushed to Death

Mr. Bairaud was at the lunch counter industrial and public employes in this in the Flomaton station. The watter region, of which Richmond is conhad noticed his nervous state, his atsidered the centre.

several years ago for felonious assault, to arrive to-day, and will be registered The committee consists of James F.
Ryland chairman, Judge John G. Dew.
City Attorney H. R. Pollard, George 1.
Reid, A. F. Leftwich and James R. Gordon. All those interested in building the road are invited, whether natives.

The committee consists of James F.

On a young man named Farrell, and at the Jefferson.

In honor of the out-of-town guests, and to a term of twelve months on the public roads. He served six or eight months of the road sentence. of his teeth were knocked out in the ble will be decorated with a fight with Barraud, who was arrested as he was attempting to escape by Popeas and quantities of spring flowers licemen Johnson and Barker. Farrell will be used in the other rooms.

Another function given for the visconter following. personal damages. The suit was compromised on a payment of $599. Barrand was seen in Richmond about two weeks ago. Shortly after the assault on Farrell be became helr to a small be crowded with a very representative

Mrs. Hammond and Others to the street. Discuss Welfare Work at crushed to death under the wheets tel last night. Mrs. Hammond, along tel suff begin at 6.00 and close at 7 of a Louisville and Nashville passenger Notice of these services was given out at all the men's Bible classes vestored from the pulpits of all the morning and were also anterday morning and were also anterday morning and evening services. As there are from 5.00 to services at the morning and evening as the morning and evening are considered from the pulpits of all the men's graph of the federation it is serviced that these meetings will be considered from the pulpits of the services at the morning and evening are considered from the pulpits of all the men's graph of the services. As there are from 5.00 to the services at the morning and evening are considered from the pulpits of all the men's graph of the state. He was arrested for he south, will also had a check for bagage, which had not yet arrived. The rail-road has had his body embalmed awaiting instruction from his family.

Construction of Sunday Law.

A. Zartrarian, white, was arrested wanted to death under the wheels of a louisville and Nashville passenger than a to oclock this morning at work for government employes, and Mrs. B. Frank Mebane, chairman on welfare work in the South, will be suit case was a bank book of the south, will be services. As there are from 5.000 to showing a recent deposit of $2.700.

A. Zartrarian, white, was arrested for house breaking.

A. Zartrarian, white, was arrested wanted to man of the Nouseh Render of the Missing Charles on a charge of laboring at work for government employes, and Mrs. B. Frank Mebane, chairman on welfare work in the South, will be such as a charge of laboring at work for government employes, and Mrs. B. Frank Mebane, chairman on welfare work in the South, will be such as a charge of laboring at the morning and evening and with Mrs. Richard Walniwrite on welfare work in the South was locked under the work for government employes.

A. Zartrarian, white, was dec awaiting instruction from his family. Virginia section, in the work among ight months of the road sentence.

Farrell's jaw was broken, and most of his teeth were knocked out in the work of the organization. The table will be decorated with a centre-gathering of Richmond women.

YOUNG PHYSICIAN

Dr. Faulkner Brought to St. Returns From Church to Find Luke's With Fracture of Cervical Vertebrae.

Former Interne at Virginia Hospital Miscalculated Depth of Water.

Dr. T. S. Faulkner, of Kinston, N. C. twenty-five years old, a graduate of the University College of Medicine and a former interne at the Virginia Hospital, was brought to Richmond Saturday, suffering from what is believed to a fracture of the cervical vertebrae. He was taken to St. Luke's Hospital by his physician, Dr. Albert Parrott, the Madisons, the Patrick Henrys, the of Kinston, and his condition is said to

The young physician was employed the Goldsboro Lumber Company, at Dover, N. C. Saturday morning he par-ticipated in a "shad stew" at Fort Barnwell. He joined with others in hauting a seine, and afterwards went bathing.

Dived in Shallow Water,

Mistaking the depth of the water, and diving in what he believed to be much more than his height, Dr. Faulkner miscalculated, and struck his head upon a hard, sandy bottom. Seeing that he did not come to the surface, friends hurriedly went to his ald and brought the unconscious form to the Examination showed that he had been completely paralyzed. Dr. Par-rott hurried with him to Richmond. It is likely that he will be operated upon

Dr. Faulkner is well known in Richmond. He secured the degree of M. D. last year and began his career in the Recently he was Virginia Hospital. Recently he was engaged by the North Carelina lumber company as its staff physician. The full extent of his injuries have

That True, Even in Spite of Wickedness and Crime in Many Quarters.

Modern conditions in this country prompt the inquiry by Rev. David M. The New York papers tell us," he said. "of a carnival of crime in that metropolis; that the police appear unable to cope with the orgy of evildoing; that at one point scores of highway robberies and two assassinations have occurred within a year. are appalled with such a condition of affairs, after two thousand years of thirty of the churches of Boston are ous problem than panies. Yet, what-ever the reason, I believe that God sits enthroned on high and that His cause must go on.

Dr. Ramsay's subject was the par able of the sower. He told of the seed sown on the highway of the mind. where pleasures have beaten an unfruitful roadway. Then of the stony ground-the impulsive, who are affected by revivals of religion, and then. attracted by something cise, are not seen until the next series of meetings. Then of the seed in rich ground, but hoked by thorns, whether of business absorption or of the pursuit of fashion. On this point he spoke emphatically of the modern problem of emulation, when every effort is put forth to surpass the family on the other side of in Alabama—Recently Inherited Money.

A special dispatch from Montgomery, Ala, last night said:

Pi. Cary Barrand, of Richmond, was particular for the Montgomery of the Mon Frank Baptist in Hospital.

Caretaker and $200 Missing.

HURT IN NORTH CAROLINA BROKE THROUGH TWO DOORS

County Officers and City Police Seeking Russian Named "Jim."

When James Shurm, a prosperous truck farmer of the Williamsburg Road, Henrico county, and his family left home yesterday morning to attend Church, Fulton, he instructed "Jim," a twenty-year-old Russian farm hand, to whom he had given employment when the youth was on the verge of starvacare of the place. When he returned home he found "Jim" and more than $200 in cash missing. The young caretwo locked doors with the ald of a grubbing hoe and broken into a trunk where the currency had been placed for safekeeping.

Sheriff L. It. Kemp, a neighbor of Shurm, was immediately notified and that officer, with his deputy, W. W. Sydnor, were soon at work upon the so the recently acquired bloodhounds vice, but the dogs were unable to pick up the trail of the youthful Russian. In the meanwhile the whole neigh borhood had been aroused by the theft, and Sheriff Kemp had notified the po-lice of all nearby towns to be on the Arrested on Suspicion.

The police of Richmond were early at work upon the case, but could find no trace of the farm hand and the stolen money. swered the description of the missing Russian was arrested in Frederic's-burg, and Mr. Shurm left last night for that town with the hope of identifying the prisoner and getting back cap, brown suit, white the and pointe, an shoes. This description was fur nished the various authorities notified, and there is reason to believe, it is said, that the man captured in Freder cksburg is the same who stole Shurm's The farmer had no reason to suspect ment to the youth the latter was in dire circumstances. He proved an ef ficient and willing worker. His habits were regular and he gave Mr. Shurm no reason to suspect that he was other

When he returned from church yes terday morning and found the doors lost no time in notifying Sheriff Kemp. the full name of the Russian, but falling into the habit of calling him "Jim," the cognomen prevailed and no one thought of referring to the boy by any other name.

BOY LOSES AN EYE

Robert Rice, Colored, Terribly, Injured Christianity.

"Then we read in the largest newspaper of Richmond (Dr. Ramsay was referring to The Times-Dispatch) how closed because they were not supported by their people, and that some of them are being sold to be used as dime theatres. I do not know the cause— whether it be the influence of higher by the control of the plans of the united and go, if one can so infer from the states government and of the progress of the united and go, if one can so infer from the states government and of the progress of the united and go, if one can so infer from the states government and of the progress of the united and go, if one can so infer from the states government and of the progress of the united and go, if one can so infer from the states government and of the progress of the united and go, if one can so infer from the states government and of the progress of the united and go, if one can so infer from the states government and of the progress of the united and go, if one can so infer from the states government and of the progress of the united and go, if one can so infer from the states government and of the progress of the united and go, if one can so infer from the states government and of the progress of the united and go, if one can so infer from the states government and of the progress of the united and go, if one can so infer from the states government and of the progress of the united and go, if one can so infer from the states government and of the progress of the united and go, if one can so infer from the states government and of the progress of the united and go, if one can so infer from the states government and of the progress of the united and go, if one can so infer from the states government and of the progress of the united and go, if one can so infer from the united and go, if one can so infer from the united and go, if one can so infer from the united and go, if one can so infer from the united and go, if one can so infer from the united and go, if one can so infer from the united and go, if one can so infer from the united and go, if one can so infer from the united and go, if one can so infer from the united whether it be the influence of higher criticism and of certain schools of thought, or whether it be the problem of movement toward the suburbs, resulting in the depopulation of downtown churches, or whether it be that great problem of prosperity—to my mind a far greater and more dangerous problem than names yet, what our problem than names yet, what is and the bark struck him square—time, and the bark struck him square—time, and the bark struck him square—the two picces. His mother heard him scream, and, rushing out, carried him into the house. As soon as she noticed the injury which had been inflicted, she summoned the city ambulance, and Dr. Turman answered. He treated the eye, and advised further attendance by the family physician.

Ready for Service Clothes Of the highest standard are here for immediate delivery.

If it is a Gans-Rady garment it is correct.

Gans-Rady Company

TEN THINGS DETROIT NEEDS ARE ALREADY IN RICHMOND

"The Spokesman of Optimism," is- operation. sued by the Board of Commerce of Detroit, prints on the front cover ten car question. Richmond did this years ago, and to-day boasts of perhaps the greatest system for a city of its size in the United States, with still better facilities in sight.

Then Mr. Chalmers wants a large convention hall in his city. Something, "Numbering of streets and good street convention hall in his city. Something," convention hall in his city. This street is a signs, which is the list of the list of the list.

and boulevards. Richmond now is busy developing its acquisitions in this direction in the old city and the Southside, so that they will be adequate to give fresh air and ample space for years.

On the eighth count, says Mr. Chalmers, Detroit needs a new Board of Commerce building, and probably would be vastly proud of the twenty-one-story structure which will house the Richmond Chamber of Commerce withing according to Mr. Chalmers, is sadly in the next eighteen months. It would not be quite fair to say much about the ninth need, because Richmond has gested that he came to this conclusion when he visited this city some time ago and saw the Virginia Mechanics' something. Detroit wants standard adequately cover the trades school problem in this part of the country.

Fifth on the list comes the cry for better street lighting. Every citizen of Richmond knows the solution, because every one has walked along Broad Street since the installation of the new lights. Greater things are looked for when the municipal plant is In full cities. Institute, which has been found to very Eastern time, adequately cover the trades school The tenth :

Now, the sixth "need" of Detroit is "a new bridge to Belle Isle." But Belle troit, prints on the front cover ten things which Detroit needs, according troit are two entirely different propoto Hugh Chalmers. Richmond already sitions. The old bridge here that was burned didn't count, because Mancheshas nine of the ten.

The first thing Detroit needs, says Mr.
Chalmers, is a settlement of the street car question. Richmond did this years

Then Mr. Chalmers wants a large convention hall in his city. Something, perhaps, like the Richmond City Auditorium, which never yet has been filled quite to "overflowing," though quite a number of large gatherings, some of which Detroit might have liked, have convened there.

The details want have more parks, able to read.

Third—Detroit must have more parks able to read.

On the eighth count, says Mr. Chal-Richmond Chamber of Commerce with-The city in which life is worth liv- in the next eighteen months. It would

Wireless Wizard Works in Dark

Station in Stuart Avenue Trying of flame carry no message to the initiated, and the thumping of the ticker is only on empty, monotonous ticker is only on empty, monotonous Flash From Sea.

a ticking piece of brass. Above him, of wires, and between the two poles the air he tells no one, at least no sparks of light and strange blue things he learns. flames leaping out to each other across an empty space. There is nothing else occasionally the walling cry of the "S. --only the strange flashes of light O. S." which popular imagination has and the sound of distant ticking. But the number of the hard the sends out and receives no one the night time when he heard that cry knows. Perhaps he is in communica- of distress, and knew that those who tion with the War Department; per- had gone down to the sea in ships haps he is a spy in the service of the were praying the whole world to save Mexican insurrectos, intercepting them, messages between those in authority Aro the employ of the Japanese govern- brass key knows the secrets they con-But no one knows. The little licks leap at each other between the rods.

AGAIN, THE BRIDGE

AGAIN, THE BRIDGE

AGAIN, THE BRIDGE

No Final Aury After the Whole summoned the city ambulance, and Dr. Turman answered. He treated the eye, and advised further attendance by the family physician.

BOY DISAPPEARS

BOY DISAPPEARS

D. T. Pulley Asks Police to Ald in Secretary Control of the greater city are still and Manchester was legally effected one year ago this week—April 14—the people of the greater city are still wasting for that bridge. To the man the state of the greater city are still wasting for the bridge. To the man the state of the greater city are still wasting for the bridge. To the man the state of the greater city are still wasting for the bridge. To the man the state of the greater city are still wasting for the bridge. To the man the state of the greater city are still wasting for the bridge. To the man the state of the greater city are still wasting for the bridge. To the man the state of the greater city are still wasting for the greater city are still wasti of illegally having cotaine in his pos-session. A big lump of what appeared to be cotaine and several packages are alleged to have been found on his per-son. The drug will be submitted to a chemist for analysis.

song. The wireless battery which this magician works may not be strong tion in the world, and be as conversant

NEW FREE MAPS

Senboard Air Line Enguings. Approximate gross earnings of the Seaboard Air Line for the fourth week in March show an increase of $88,903 as compared with the corresponding week last year.

ment's Work in Opening

could be stopped."

Hatch Willard and Miss Gertrude RobBarraud was tried and convicted inson Smith, of New York are expected the accomulation of years. A big news quickly spread through the surschool of fish was recently seen gathered about a sixteen-foot cypress log pushing it down stream. Residents in that territory, learning of the strange behavior of the fish for like the present for starting a sayings account. Once started--how quickly 3 per cent, compound interest added to your savings.

> THE SAVING PANIS THERE IS NO TIME

1117 East Main Street.

Virginia section, in the work among industrial and public employes in this German Carp Doing Govern- more than a week, have been engaged in cutting waste timber along the banks, casting it upon the waters, and it is being rapidly moved downstream rounding country, and many residents came to gaze upon the sight.

It was some time before the spectators witnessed the moving timber going down the stream. Behind the logs were schools of the big fish, making a clear passage to tidewater. The landowners are now cutting away the timber ahead of the fish.

It is understood from natives along the banks of the Chickahominy that Captain Lamb was aware of the nature of the fish with which he stocked the river, and decided to leave the work to them of clearing the stream of waste when he found he was unable to secure a congressional appropriation to pay contractors to do the work.

W. L. Douclas ESTAB. $3.50& $4 SHOES FOR W. L. Douglas Spring Styles include more Snappy and Up-to-Date Shapes in Oxfords & High Cuts than ever before produced.

W. L. Douglas warrants every pair of his shoes to hold their shape, look and fit better and wear longer than any other make, giving you better value for the money than you can obtain elsewhere.

When you buy W. L. Douglas shoes you will be pleased because of the fit and appearance, and when it comes time for you to purchase another pair you will be more than pleased because the last ones wore so well and gave so much comfort.

BEWARE OF SUBSTITUTES. CAUTION The genuine have W. L. Douglas on the bottom, which protects the wearer against high prices and inferior shoes.

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES CLAIMED TO Boys' Shoes, $2 & $2.50 The Best School and Dress Shoes for the Price in America.

BE "JUST AS QOOD."

for the Price in America.

If you cannot obtain W. L. Douglas shoes in your town, write for catalog. Shoes sent direct from factory to wearer, all charges propaid. W. L. DOUGLAS, 152 Spark St., Brockton, Mass. W. L. DOUGLAS, Richmond Store, 623 East Broad St.